PROJECTS

Hey Boo-Boo | https://github.com/JoshEflin/Hey-boo-boo | Live: https://lit-river-34902.herokuapp.com
- Built as an event planning web application for soccer Mom's who are tired of losing their plans in a sea of text messages. The app stores event data in a SQL database and adds a reminder to your google calendar.
- Implemented google Calendar OAuth flow, handling database queries, and building routes and views.
- Node.js, Express.js, Sequelize, MySQL, handlebars.js, google-APIS, Bootstrap

A Bone to Pick | https://github.com/JoshEflin/A-Bone-to-Pick | Live: https://josheflin.github.io/A-Bone-to-Pick/
- Built as a card collecting game to help dogs in need. It makes use of the Petfinder API to find dogs in your area and uses API ninja's dog API. The result is a tradable dog card a user can share with friends.
- Responsible for dynamic creation and maintenance of dog trading cards, as well as design and animations.
- JQuery, Bulma, Google Fonts, Font Awesome, Javascript, HTML 5, CSS 3

Five Day Outlook | https://github.com/JoshEflin/five-day-outlook | Live: https://tinyurl.com/4hvsfhdv
- This app calls the Open Weather API to give the user the current weather and the five-day outlook at the location entered into the search bar. Data persists client side in local storage. The five most recent searches display with the Last in First Out paradigm.
- HTML 5, CSS 3, Javascript, Open Weather API
